DESCRIPTION

Rose Damascena floral water is the pure hydrosol produced as a co-distillate during steam distillation of fresh Rosa damascena petals from Bioform's own 120-hectare certified organic plantation. As the steam passes through the fresh petals and condenses, it carries with it the water-soluble aromatic and active compounds of the rose — including phenyl ethyl alcohol, geraniol and citronellol — in a gentle, skin-compatible aqueous form.
