DESCRIPTION

Rosa Raduga is a heritage rose variety with a powerful, concentrated aromatic character distinct from Damascena. The essential oil has an intense, deep floral profile with pronounced spicy and slightly fruity undertones that give it a unique identity among rose oils. Bioform cultivates this variety on its own certified organic plantation in the village of Tazha, at the heart of Bulgaria's Rose Valley, and distils the freshly picked petals on site using traditional aluminium stills to preserve the oil's full aromatic complexity.
